Florida Resort Never So Crowded With Visitors --- Private Houses Commandeered to Hold Them

Seath has been buzzing all week with an almost continuous round of breakmost parties, golf and tennis sournaments, bench parades and small grivate entertaliments without number.
The hotels are overflowing and pocketbooks apparently are in a similar condition. There has never been such a display of elaborate dressing and exdisplay of elaborate dressing and exdisp display of elaborate dressing and expensive entertaining. The congestion extends all along the Florida coast as, for instance, in Miami, where this week the Board of Trade had to put out canvassers asking private houses to take in visitors who were walking the streets.

SEABREEZE, FLA.

SEABREEZE. Fla., Feb. 19.—Magculine hathers on the beach fronting the Hotel Clarendon have evinced a desire to compote with their female companions in regard to bathing costumes. One day recently Leslie Chalmers, who admitted that he was a long Island native, but gave no definite habitat, astonished the guests by appearing in a locust green bathing suit cut very low. The edges were faced with red and orange satin. A companion soon joined him who wore a French blue jersey and scarlet trunks that appeared cut for a smaller model. During the bathing hour the ocean in front of the Clarendon suggests a field of flowers of various colors. Red stock-
